

THE HARTFORD HERALD

Subscription $1.50 Per Year, in Advance

"Come, the Herald of a Noisy World, the Voice of All Nations Lumbering at My Back."

All Kinds Job Printing Neatly Executed

48th YEAR.

HARTFORD, KY., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1922.

NO. 6

10 WOUNDED IN NEWPORT STRIKE BATTLE

Governor Arrives After Troops Fire On Mob In Rescuing Assaulted Workmen.

Newport, Ky., 4.—Five persons were shot and as many more, including one woman, were beaten and cut in a clash late today between a detachment of State troops and a mob of men and women strike sympathizers who had attacked and overwhelmed twelve workers on their way home from the Newport Rolling Mills.

The mob of several hundred had knocked down the workmen and were stamping and beating them when the detachment of troops arrived. The troops fired a volley in to the mob and then charged with clubbed rifles before the rioters dispersed.

List of Injured

The following casualties are known to have resulted:

W. B. Comstock, mill worker shot and beaten; condition serious. Herschell Wolfe, mill worker, recently of Elwood, Ind., shot and beaten; internal injuries; condition serious.

Frank Janesen, 320 Thornton Street, shot in the hip.

Mrs. Gertrude O'Sage, 956 Central Avenue, knocked unconscious with butt end of rifle.

Thomas Carroll, Clifton, Ky., bystander, shot in right arm.

Keller Vanhook, mill worker, badly beaten.

James Groves, mill worker, cut on face and body.

C. B. Brown, mill worker, hacked with knife.

Joseph Gillespie, street conductor, cut on head; ear torn.

Thomas Carrel, Clifton, Ky., shot in wrist.

Workmen Hurled to Ground

The twelve men who were attacked left the plant at 5 o'clock and were proceeding east on Ninth Street between Brighton and Isabella, when the mob, numbering between 300 and 400 men and women, attacked them, shouting, screaming and cursing. The rioters beat the twelve workmen to the ground, the men using their fists and clubs, and the women hurling stones and other missiles.

Sentinels stationed nearby notified troop headquarters, and twelve troopers were sent to the scene on the double quick. As the guardsmen appeared on Ninth Street, members of the mob opened fire on them, according to a report, of the fighting made later by Capt. L. V. Crockett, in command of the Covington tank corps, whose men were involved in the battle. Captain Crockett says not a shot was fired by the soldiers until they were fired on by the mob.

Answer With Volley

The twelve troopers replied to the fire of the mob by sending a volley in their direction. Then, advancing with clubbed rifles, they drove the rioters back. Reinforcements soon arrived and the neighborhood was cleared of the mob.

The soldiers stood guard over the injured until ambulances were summoned.

Comstock and Wolfe were taken to Speers Hospital.

The rioting followed an "impression parade" staged by the troops. The troops had been summoned to disperse a mob of 1,000 persons at Ninth and Brighton Streets. On the approach of the troops, the mob disintegrated into small parties, which spread over the mill district, and continued to maintain a menacing attitude.

Mobs Are Dispersed

It was this situation which persuaded Col. H. H. Denhardt, in command of the troops to march his men through the city, dispersing the rioters as they were encountered and demonstrating the strength and determination of the military.

Maj. James E. Dillon, headed the parade and Colonel Denhardt, and Col. Charles Morrow, rode with the column in an automobile.

The violence was renewed later tonight but in smaller volume, disturbances occurring from time to time in various parts of the city.

Governor Arrives for Parley

"I'm here to remain until peace dawns in Newport," said Gov. Edwin

P. Morrow tonight on his arrival in Cincinnati from Frankfort. He came to confer with strikers and mill owners in the hope of finding a way to end the labor warfare. The conference opened at 10 o'clock with the Governor presiding. The delegates declared they were prepared to remain in session all night if there seemed any likelihood of a settlement being reached.

HEROISM AND PRESENCE OF MIND SAVE WOMAN

What threatened to be a serious accident was narrowly averted on the 30th, ult., by the heroism and presence of mind of Bruce Montgomery, a member of the Bond Bros. Tie Co., who, with several other men, was making a tie inspection trip over the local L. & N. branch by motor car. As the car was between Kroons and Centertown a woman was seen walking on the track some distance ahead. The inspecting party kept thinking that she would leave the track and upon coming nearer attempted to warn her by shouting and hallooing, but she proceeded upon her way without taking the slightest notice of the approaching danger. When it was seen that warnings were without avail frantic efforts were made to stop the car, but a too sudden stop, if it could have been made, would have derailed it. In this dilemma Mr. Montgomery, who is said to be athletic and very strong, leaped for the woman, catching her in his arms, and they both rolled off the track practically unhurt, the latter receiving only slight bruises on one foot. She was, however, naturally, terribly frightened, for it was found that she is deaf which explains the fact that she had been entirely oblivious to all warnings of impending danger. She proved to be Mrs. E. E. Campbell, who resides in the vicinity.

METHODIST REVIVAL CONTINUES WITH GREAT INTEREST

The series of revival services which began at the Hartford Methodist Church on Monday night, the 30th, ult., continues with forceful and inspiring messages from Rev. L. W. Turner, of Calhoun, who is conducting the protracted effort in co-operation with the pastor, Rev. T. T. Frazier. The attendance has been good, the interest displayed by the attendants most encouraging and the prospects are that the final result of the revival will be a great spiritual awakening and revivifying for the town and surrounding country.

The singing is under the direction of Mr. W. J. Bean, with Miss Anna Rhea Carson at the piano. A children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. W. S. Tinsley, is proving a very helpful feature of the services. All local denominations are showing a most commendable spirit of co-operation.

Services will continue until Sunday, at least, at 2:30 in the afternoon and 7 o'clock in the evening, except that there will be no service on Saturday afternoon.

S. W. BILBRO DEAD

S. W. Bilbro, aged 72 years and 12 days, died at his home about two miles south of Centertown, Thursday, February 2, at 4 a. m., of a complication of ailments. When a small boy he professed faith in Christ and united with the New Hope Baptist church, later moving his membership to the West Point Baptist church, where he lived a faithful member until death. He was married to Mrs. Hula Withrow on June 24, 1907 to which union were born two sons, John B. and Samuel Walker Jr. He was a Mason in good standing, being a member of Matanzas Lodge No. 811.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. E. Fuqua at the Equality M. E. Church, Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Burial in the near-by cemetery was in charge of the Masonic fraternity. Besides his wife and two sons, Mr. Bilbro is survived by a host of relatives and friends who mourn the loss of such a consistent Christian, accommodating neighbor and exemplary citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hancock and little daughter, Cozie Ellen, who had been spending a few days with Mrs. Hancock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gillespie, left Monday for Bowling Green, where Mr. Hancock will work in the oil fields.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

Rev. T. T. Frazier was confined to his room for a couple of days early last week with an attack of pleurisy.

Mr. A. D. Kirk who has been confined to his room for several days, suffering from an abscess of the nose is improving.

Little Miss Louise Westerfield and brother, Master Fred, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Westerfield, have been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. John Johnson, who is in the employ of Bond Bros., as superintendent of timber contracts, in Alabama, is spending a few days with his family here.

Mr. Reuben A. Bennett has gone to Springfield, Ill., where he will visit with his son, Mr. J. Caskey Bennett and Mrs. Bennett for several weeks.

Mrs. S. T. Longfellow and little daughter, Helen, left Saturday for their home in Bowling Green after spending several days with relatives in and near Hartford.

Hemstitching and piecing attachment works on any sewing machine, easily adjusted. Price $2.50 with full instructions. Oriental Novelty Co., Box 11, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Heavrin, of Lexington, arrived in Hartford Saturday. They will make their future home in this city where Mr. Heavrin will practice law with his uncle, Mr. M. L. Heavrin.

FOR SALE—One team of old mules, one team of mules, 5 years old. Also one four-year old registered Polled Durham Bull.

GEO. A. BARNES, Beaver Dam, Ky.

Don't forget to let us know before the 25th, if you want the Southern Agriculturist. Our offer of a Free Subscription, if you pay for the Herald a full year in advance, expires on that date.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gillespie took their infant son, Marcus Rhea, to the Jewish Hospital in Louisville, on Sunday for examination and treatment. The child has not been well for a number of months.

Miss Winnie Davis Simmerman, city, and Miss Anna Barnes, Beaver Dam, are the guests of Mrs. S. F. Ferguson, of Indianapolis, Ind. En route home they will stop in Louisville, where they will spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. A. C. Porter left Saturday for Louisville where she will spend several days with Mr. Porter, after which she will make an extended visit with her sisters, Mesdames N. J. Baxter, of Griffin, Ga., and C. R. McCallister, of Columbus, Ga.

Don't forget to come to the Basket Ball game Saturday night February 11th. Double Header—Greenville Boys and Girls vs. Hartford Boys and Girls. These teams met last Friday night in Greenville, the boys lost and the girls won, so you can look for two of the best games of the season.

The County Drainage Board, consisting of Messrs. S. T. Barnett, Hartford; J. A. Bellamy, Whitesville, R. 2; and V. C. Hocker, Beaver Dam, R. 2, met here Tuesday morning, for the purpose of allowing claims and checking up on the construction work on the Muffett Ditch.

Mr. Joe Hocker, of near town, accompanied by his wife, went to Owensboro last Wednesday for the purpose of undergoing an operation for an abscessed throat, but that night the abscess ruptured spontaneously, causing marked improvement in his condition. He returned home Friday.

Mr. C. U. Jett of the Extension Department of the College of Agriculture was in Hartford Monday and Tuesday last holding one day Farm Management Schools for the benefit of the Farmers in each locality. His principle work was the starting of a series of Farm Records for the years business or in other words he is trying to help put farming on a business basis. Both of the meetings were held in the Agricultural laboratories of the High School buildings of the respective towns.

HOGAN TESTED Buff Leghorns most beautiful of all Leghorns, as good if not better layers; also White Leghorns mated to 265 to 300 egg Ferris cockerels direct; Ringlet Barred Rocks and Buff Orpingtons. Eggs $1.75 per 15, prepaid, or $1.00 at farm.

C. R. WARD,

6-3tp Hartford, Ky., R. R. No. 4.

TRAGIC DEATH OF INFANT NEAR DEANFIELD

Joe Edward, the 20-month old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hardin, living about two miles from Deanfield, died at 10 p. m. last Wednesday as a result of burns received the day before. The little fellow and a sister about 3 years old were playing near a grate when the parents stepped out of the room. Returning shortly they found the dress of the infant in flames. Its body, arms and face were badly burned and the flames were probably inhaled.

Medical attention was obtained at once but to no avail. The older child says that her little brother was playing with a piece of cloth or paper, which he called his "hanky," when he suddenly stuck it through a hole in the fire-screen, pulled it back ablaze and pushed it down at his side, as if into a pocket, catching his clothing afire.

Interment took place in the family cemetery after a brief service at the graveside. The bereaved parents have the most heartfelt sympathy of a host of relatives and friends.

FIRE CAUSES LOSS OF OVER $7,000 AT McHENRY

Fire of undetermined origin which originated in the old frame building back of S. J. Tichenor's store, at McHenry, about 2 a. m. Friday morning, resulted in the total loss of the building and contents as well as damage to adjacent buildings, which also probably would have been destroyed had it not been for the prompt and efficient work of the volunteer fire-fighters.

The building was occupied by I. S. Farris as a residence, mill and grocery. His loss on his household goods, grist-mill, stock and car was about $3,500, with about $2,500 insurance. The building belonged to Mr. S. J. Tichenor and also contained his automobile. His loss was approximately $3,000, with $1,000 insurance. Two other automobiles, belonging to A. M. Palmer and H. Smith respectively, were destroyed. Both the Tichenor and Palmer residences caught fire, but the flames were extinguished before serious damage was done.

BEAVER DAM AGAIN VICTORIOUS

The Beaver Dam basket ball team, which has not tasted defeat for six years, kept this record unbroken by defeating the Owensboro American Legion team by the score of 50 to 10, on the Beaver Dam floor, Saturday night. At the beginning the two teams seemed evenly matched, but the Ohio County lads soon began to take the lead. The feature of the game was the team-work of the Beaver Dam aggregation. The line-up and tallying of the Beaver Champs was as follows: Forwards, Davis (59) and Render (17); Center, P. Barnes (24); Guards, Alfred (2) and K. Barnes (2). Subs, Robison and Baker.

CROMWELL

Feb. 3, 1922.—The health of the community is not good, as there is a form of the "flu" prevalent among us.

Cromwell has had another fire, Ansel Haven's house burned a few days ago. It was one the best residences in the village. Some paper and other rubbish had been swept up and thrown into the stove and some of the burning stuff, falling on the roof, set fire to it. There was only a small amount of insurance, we learn.

Prayer meetings are being held at Ky. residences around here.

John Finley has moved to the Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emory G. Schroeder on Friday night, Jan. 27 a fine girl. The little lady has been christened Mary Catherine.

FAREWELL TALKS AT ARMS MEETING

Address By President Harding and Final Adjournment Monday.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The arms conference made the last entry on its record of achievements today and prepared for the adjournment Monday.

At a four-hour plenary session two more treaties and half a dozen supplemental resolutions were passed through the final stage of conference approval and then the delegates exchanged farewell courtesies in a series of speeches expressing universal satisfaction over the results of the history-making twelve weeks of negotiations just ended.

Monday's session will be devoted entirely to formal signature of the conference treaties and to an address by President Harding, voicing his appraisal of the work accomplished by the conference he called into being. Most of the foreign delegates plan to leave Washington on Monday or Tuesday.

The two treaties accepted formally at today's session both relate to China, one providing for a revision of Chinese customs system and the other embodying Elihu Root's "four points" and the amplified open door. Some of the separate resolutions put on the record deal with collateral Chinese questions, but included in the lot was a supplement to the four-power Pacific treaty excluding from the scope of the agreement the principal islands of the Japanese empire.

Japs and Chinese Sign

A few hours after the plenary session adjourned the Japanese and Chinese met and affixed their signatures to the treaty by which Shantung is to be returned to Chinese disposition in the conference program. Shantung question occupied a key position in the conference program for negotiations by which it was settled proceeded outside the conference proper and only the two Great powers were made parties to the resulting treaty.

Every delegation had a voice in the final session of oratory that truly brought the work of the conference to a close today, and every spokesman predicted that the negotiations of Washington would mark a new page in the history of the world. Secretary Hughes for the United States and Arthur J. Balfour for Great Britain, hailed the conference accomplishments as ushering in a "new era" of international understanding and Albert Sarraut for France emphasized the record of achievement as constituting the "loftiest promise of mankind." Similar expressions came from all the other national groups.

Genoa Conference Mentioned Embodied in Italy's last message to the conference, voiced by Senator Shanzer, was a reference to the coming economic conference to be held at Genoa, coupled with an expression of hope that the United States would not now withdraw from the councils of the powers. The economic situation must come more and more to the front as the world attempts to scale down armaments and return to the ways of peace.

The utterances of the statesmen of the powers during the final period of oratory were delivered, strangely enough, to a hall almost empty of spectators. The plenary session had lapped far over the Cold, La Grippe, Constipation, Weak lunch hour before it had completed the tedious formalities of approving treaties and resolutions already made public and what had originally been a crowd of many hundreds dwindled gradually away until the galleries had many entire rows of seats without a single occupant.

FIVE YEAR-OLD CENTERTOWN LAD HAS HERALD HABIT

Centertown, Ky., Feb. 4, 1922. The Hartford Herald.

Kind Sir:—I met the postman and failed to get the Herald. I thought it was time I was renewing. So you will find a check on my 6-4t Daddy. I will pay him back when I get to be a grown-up boy as I am just five years old. I read the Herald and am a fine boy.

Yours as ever,
ADRAIN BELL, Route 1,